Old Yarn Market, Dunster, Somerset. The neighbouring country of Dunster is noted for its beautiful scenery, and its ancient houses and sloping streets give the town a most picturesque appearance. The old wooden Yarn Market, octagonal in shape, is a curious and interesting structure, and was erected in 1609, when the Dunster or Kerseymerie cloths were sold. One of the great pieces of oaken framework is pierced by a cannon ball fired from the castle in 1646.

My dear Father

I thought you would like this card. I hope you are a bit better than when last I heard.

We have had a good deal of rain this last week & it is beginning to feel & look like autumn -

With much love

Your loving daughter

Dear Dady: Thanks for your telegram & letter received alright & we were pleased to hear all was well at home & office. We guessed you would have had a surprise when they came as it was a moonless night & you went to bed feeling sure of no disturbances.

What with fine clear nights, moonlight nights & now stunelors Borealis's coming to order for them - what other favours are they going to get - perhaps the Moon will stop its movement one day & always be shining over London for their benefit or else we shall be like Jupiter & suddenly get 9 moons instead of one. I always

There is not in the wide world a valley so sweet, as that vale in whose bosom the bright waters meet Oh! the fast rays of feeling and life must depart Ere the bloom of that valley shall fade from my heart.
